Chiclana, on January 10, 2012

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The Organizing Committee named by AISG-Spain, formed by members of the Association of Scouts Adults "Old Wolves Cross of the South" takes pleasure in confirming that XIV Mediterranean Gathering and the Conference of the Europa's Sub-region South will take place in Chiclana (Hotel Vincci Costa-Golf) from October 31st until November 5th, 2012. We invite you to enjoy the movement scout, the friendship and the culture.

The nearby city of Cadiz, with more than 3000 years of history, shows the fingerprint that the peoples that have happened there have been stopping in his culture, traditions, monuments, gastronomy and character of his peoples. This cultural and social attraction spreads to all the provinces that together with Cadiz compose Andalusia, where to every step we can find buildings that report the alive history of the step of the peoples. We cannot forget the beaches that surround us and the fantastic climate that enjoys the zone.

The theme "An open sea", it opposes the traditional vision of the Mediterranean as a sea closed with the reality of an open sea to the social, cultural, ideological changes, to human migrations, to the solidarity, to the adoption of customs and with regard to the traditions.

Throughout these days we will realize visits guided to Jerez (warehouses, dance of horses), to Chiclana (nature) and to Cadiz (historical tour). We will have time for meetings, exhibition of projects and conferences. We will have a great Dinner of show in which there is exposed the artistic attraction of our land. Finally there will be realized the Act of Closing and the Dinner of farewell to leave the hotel on November 5th in the morning. At this moment there would take place the excursions offered after the meeting, which try to give a more detailed vision of our land and for which we hope that they are of the pleasure of those that want to continue a few days for the zone.
