The Missing Piece in Family and Martial Life

The ISGF Arab Region, presented by a representative in activities and programs committee with cooperation from the Psychological and familial guidance association in Jeddah, organized an evening under the name “The Missing Piece in Family Life” on a Thursday evening, July 23rd, 2020.

The meeting was opened by Mr. Fathi Farghali, president of the ISGF Arab Region, where he offered salutations to all of the union’s Technical and Executive committees and congratulated everyone on the occasion of the blessed Eid Al-Adha. He proceeded to praise the efforts of the Activities and Programs committee in executing the evening in collaboration with the Psychological and familial guidance association in Saudi Arabia, represented by Professor Jazaa Bin Marzouk Al-Mutairi. He praised such activities for their positive effects on family and society. Then, Professor Jazaa bin Marzouq Al-Mutairi started his training course entitled (The Missing Piece in Family and Marital Life).

The evening was concluded by the president of the activities and programs committee Eng. Ibrahim Zubailah where he extended his thanks to Professor Jazaa bin Marzouq Al-Mutairi for his presentation and appreciating the effective role of the Psychological and familial guidance association in Jeddah. He was also personally thanked by the president of the ISGF Arab Region. Then interventions started from the participants, with the Secretary General of the Committee, Mr. Mastour Al-Shahrani, closing the evening.
