Arab Environment Day Celebration.

In cooperation with the Arab League and the Arab Network of Environmental Development, ISGF Arab Region, represented by the Community Development and Partnerships Committee, organized a celebration of the Arab Environment Day on October 14, 2020, under the name (Safe disposal of electrical and electronic waste)

Hosted by Dr. Mahmoud Fathallah from the Arab League, Professor Zaid Al-Alawneh from the Arab Network of Environmental Development, Minister Jamil Mutour, Head of Environmental Quality in Palestine, Engineer Zaghloul Samhan from the Palestinian Environmental Quality Authority, and Dr. Tariq Muhammad Al-Arabi from the Egyptian Ministry of Environment.

The President of the ISGF Arab Region greeted everyone and expressed his appreciation for the role of the Arab League on this partnership and thanked everyone for their attendance, noting that the title chosen this year for the Arab Environment Day has economic and environmental dimensions that are very important.

The guests unanimously agreed about the great damage caused from electrical and electronic waste and its negative effects on the environment and called for doubling the efforts of governments and societies to confront it, preparing safe mechanisms, and do their best to get rid of it.

Valuable experiences were showcased from all the following countries - Egypt, the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, United Arab Emirates and the Kingdom of Jordan, Palestine and an additional experience from China. The Secretary General of the Community Development and Partnerships Committee, Mr. Mesfer Al-Ghobashi, ended the celebration with a word of thanks to all attendees.
