International Volunteers' Day 2017
Message

Dear Fellow volunteers.

On behalf of ISGF and the World Committee, we would like to join you in celebrating the International volunteer's day, which is an important day for all of us.

As we are all aware that our organization activities depend on the good will of Volunteers who are all of us.

Volunteers contribute a lot to the development and betterment of the world through the big and small things we do often times.

Sometimes, however, we do not recognize how beneficial and important our contributions are. On the day of the International Volunteers' day, we consider important to take some time to think much on the good Turns we do every other time. We would like to congratulate you and to thank you for all the work you do to support voluntary work.

On this day, as ISGF, it is important to focus our voluntary energies and mind to develop our beloved organization.

We need to combine our efforts to focus on our Vision 2020 with the key focus areas of Environment, Peace, Partnerships, Visibility, Networking, and Resource Mobilisation, which not only require your efforts but a bit of your time as well.

This will require for extra more volunteers, and commitment, if we are to achieve the foresaid goals for us to build our organization to the next level of development. Those who are willing and can create some time to support us; you can contact our World Bureau, worldbureau@isgf.org

Remember the words of our Founder Lord Baden Powell:

"Happiness is open to all, since, when you boil it down, it merely consists of contentment with what you have got and doing what you can for other people."

I wish you happy celebrations.
Thank you.
