The International Scout and Guide Fellowship, (ISGF) is a worldwide organisation for adults, started in 1953, who feel that the ideals of Scouting & Guiding should be implemented in an adult context. It provides opportunities for members worldwide to meet others with similar interest and values, as well as to cooperate with them in various projects and activities.

Membership is open to former and present adult members of the Member Organisations of the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts (WAGGGS), the National Scout Organisations of the World Organisation of the Scout Movement (WOSM), and to adults who did not get the opportunity to be Scouts/Guides at an early age, or to be active Scout/Guide leaders but are now willing to subscribe to the values of Scouting and Guiding.

Advantages of being a member of ISGF

- Being part of the international Scout & Guide family
- Taking part in debates, find friendship and peer support
- Gaining knowledge of youth and adult Scouting & Guiding worldwide
- Make new friends and opportunities for social interaction in a global network
- Lifelong learning by exchanging experiences, ideas and practices
- Our semi-annual newsletter
- The opportunity to work on joint global projects
- Invitations to participate in World and Regional Conferences as well as sub-regional and other events

WAGGGS & WOSM

The International Scout and Guide Fellowship works in harmony and close co-operation with the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts (WAGGGS) and the World Organisation of the Scout Movement (WOSM).

down by Lord Robert Baden-Powell, Founder of the Scout and Guide Movement, in a process of continuous personal development;

- bring that spirit into the communities in which they live and work through active service to them; and

The Aims of the ISGF are to encourage its members to

- personally, keep alive the spirit of the Promise and Law as laid

- actively support the WAGGGS and WOSM member organisations in these communities, in their countries and worldwide.
