

A special day for the scouts, is made concrete to celebrate the Day of Thought, to be fulfilled the birth of Baden-Powell, creator of Scouting, on February 22, 1857, a date that also recalls the birth of his wife, Olave Saint Clair Soames, Robert Stephenson Smith Baden-Powell, founder of the world scout movement, was born in the London borough of Paddington. His wife, Olave Saint Clair Soames, also linked to this activity, made another February 22, in 1889.

Thought Day

The Day of Thought, the institute to celebrate the anniversary of the birth of the Chief World Guide (Lady Olave) and the founder of the World Scout Movement (Baden-Powell).

The scouts adapt themselves to each one of the members of the movement and reaffirm their day originated at the world conference of 1926 and was celebrated for the first time in the following year.

The Board of Directors of Fraternidad de Antiguos Scouts y Guías del Uruguay (FASGU), greet all the scouts on this special date. "Always ready to serve"