Newsletter No. (1): Welcome and Vision

The State of Kuwait warmly welcomes you to the 31st World Conference of the International Scout and Guide Fellowship (ISGF - AISG), held under the theme “Friendship and Peace.”

Message from the Host Committee:

With great pride and honor, Kuwait Pioneers Scouts and Guides are pleased to invite you to participate in the 31st World Conference. Here in Kuwait, the land of friendship and peace, we strive to deliver an exceptional experience that blends authentic scouting values with the renowned Arab hospitality for which the people of Kuwait have been known throughout history.

Why Kuwait 2027?

Kuwait is not merely a tourist destination; it is a vibrant center of culture and volunteerism. The conference will provide a unique opportunity to explore the modern development of the State of Kuwait, alongside discovering its rich Gulf heritage.

Conference Dates:

17 – 22 October 2027

The Host Committee has ensured the selection of a single venue to host both the conference and accommodation for all participants, guaranteeing the highest levels of comfort and organization. The selected venue is:

Millennium Hotel & Convention Centre Kuwait

The Millennium Hotel Kuwait is one of the largest conference centers in the Salmiya area, distinguished by its strategic location near the financial and commercial district and only ten minutes away from Kuwait City.

There, participants will enjoy stunning views of the city from 295 fully furnished rooms and suites within this 18-story hotel.

The hotel also features 21 event halls, including a modern ballroom, and more than 6,000 square meters dedicated to conference facilities, making it one of the largest conference venues in the country.

Conference Logo:

The conference logo incorporates a collection of symbols that reflect the historical identity of the State of Kuwait, including:

1. The old gate of Kuwait
2. The Kuwaiti desert
3. The camel
4. Pearls
5. Al-Sadu (traditional weaving)
6. The dove of peace, representing the conference theme “Friendship and Peace”

Arrival to Kuwait:

Access to the State of Kuwait is through Kuwait International Airport.
