MONTHLY REPORT OF MARCH 2021

Survival may be defined as “the state or fact of continuing to live or exist typically in spite of an accident, deal or difficult circumstances”. In today's world there is a constant battle for survival. A great necessity is placed on the basic survival skills to overcome any obstacle that you may face along life's way. Believe that it's the ability to endure and persevere through the adversity with great strength and the ability to learn from these challenges that constitutes a true survivor.
