MAY 2022 MONTHLY REPORT

“Education is not the amount of information that is put into your brain and runs riot there, undigested, all your life.”

-Swami Vivekananda

All-round development, holistic skills, empathy towards fellow-human beings and a strength of character - Education is effective only if it can fulfil these requirements. As schools resumes across the country, Indian SGF - Fellowship wishes to engage through teachers in this noble endeavour.

The 7th State Gathering of Kerala State Scout & Guide Fellowship was held from 13th to 15th of May 2022, at Sree Krishna Higher Secondary School, Guruvayur, Thrissur District. The camp was hosted by Guruvayur Guild Scout & Guide Fellowship.

Day 01: The registration started at 15:00 hours on 13th May. The first fellow registered the name was Ms. Soumya N Kumbar, strengthening the relationship beyond borders, from Dharward District Scout & Guide Fellowship, Karnataka State. Following her, member of Ernakulam District Scout & Guide Fellowship and the State Coordinator, ATAS Kerala Chapter, Dr. (Adv.) Pradeep K P registered his name. After completing the registrations, all the participants had tea before starting the procedures. At 15:45 hours all participants gathered at the flag point to welcome each other to the camp. Kerala SGF SAAT Chairperson, Mr. P N Krishnaprasad was in the leadership of camp programmes. At 16:00 hours all the fellows took a walk, to see the divine city, 'Guru Pavana Puri' commonly known as Guruvayur, the land of Lord Krishna. The team saw the city, walking around the temple and visited Guruvayur Devaswom Museum where many monuments related to the temple and its history are displayed. After reaching back all the fellows gathered again at flag point to meet and greet in detail. By 19:00 hours the stage was ready for the second session, 'Lead Yourself'. Corporate Trainer Mr. Biju Balagopal was introduced to the camp by the State President, Er. N I Verghese. A sixty minutes session by Mr. Biju Balagopal boosted up the leadership qualities in the partnership. The camp had dinner and then gathered in the seminar hall to share more about their scouting memories and experiences. The camp switched off the lights at 22:30 hours wishing all a very good night.

Day 02: The camp woke up as planned at 05:30 hours and all participants came to the porch area after the morning routine for BP's Six exercises at 06:00 hours. All the participants performed all the six exercises as a group and warmed up. After taking bath and having breakfast the camp gathered at the flag point for the flag ceremony. At 09:00 hours the camp rendered the Scout-Guide Prayer and the Indian SGF flag was hosted by Mr. Krishnakumar M, Chairperson of Guruvayur Municipality. The parade led by Mr. M V Gopalan, President, Guruvayur Guild Scout & Guide Fellowship honoured the flag and the chief guest with a salute. The formal inauguration took place at the seminar hall after this. State Secretary, Kerala SGF, Mr. K G Renju welcomed all to the ceremony presided by the State President, Kerala SGF, Er. N I Verghese. Mr. Krishnakumar addressed the camp and highlighted the importance of selfless service to society. He appreciated the activities carried out by the Scout and Guide family, especially the service rendered by Guruvayur Guild SGF in his jurisdiction. He offered all his personal support and support from the local self-governance department to all the future activities of Kerala SGF. State Vice President - Administration, Mr. Manoj Kumar A and Dr. (Adv) Pradeep K P, ATAS Kerala Chapter State Coordinator had delivered facilitation speeches. At 10:00 hours, the third session started. The session was inaugurated by Mr. Suresh Kumar K G, Assistant Commissioner of Police, Guruvayur. Former Scout, Mr. Santhosh Kumar K, Sub-Inspector of Police who is also the Public Relations Officer and a Trainer in Kerala Police interacted with the camp on the subject, 'New trends in crime'. The session helped the participants about the current crime scenario and the basic steps each citizen needs to take to stop crimes. The camp then started their ride to the famous elephant camp at Kottappadi, situated 2 kilometers away from the campsite. 'Punnathur Kotta' was once the palace of a local ruler, but the palace grounds are now used to house the elephants belonging to the Guruvayoor temple, and have been renamed Aanakkotta (meaning "Elephant Fort"), currently houses 50+ elephants. The unexpected climate change, due to the influence of the deep depression over the Arabian Sea, resulting heavy rain forced a change in the timetable. After reaching back late in the campsite participants had lunch and rushed to the next location, for coastal trekking. The coastal trekking was conducted at Chavakkad beach. After having a small chat the team started cleaning the beach. The cleaning was mainly focused on non-biodegradable waste, especially plastic waste. The team collected a large quantity of plastic waste, segregated it according to types of product such as PET bottles, food wrappers, cups and plates etc. The heavy rain couldn't stop the team and the collected waste was handed over to the recycling agency authorised by the local governing body. The heavy rain made some changes in the timetable again. The team reached back to campsite and freshen up. At 19:30 Hours a hybrid meeting was organised. The President -Executive of Indian Scout & Guide Fellowship, Mr. M A K Mecci joined the gathering and made the moments precious. The Secretary-General of Indian SGF, Mrs. Seema Rathi addressed the camp followed by the Chairman of Southern Region SGF Council, Mr. L Ravikumar and Mr. J C Murali Krishna, State Coordinator, Karnataka State Scout & Guide Fellowship. All of them assured all the support from Indian SGF and regional council. Continuing the hybrid meeting, Mr. Balachandran Parachottil, Patron of Kerala State Scout & Guide Fellowship and the State Commissioner - Adult Resources, The Kerala State Bharat Scouts & Guides joined online from the State Capital and addressed the camp. The valuable words motivated all the participants and he pointed out the importance of adult scouting in the development of Scouting-Guiding in the State. After dinner, the campfire got started. No pre-planned items or practiced performance was there, but the campfire touched the sky. All the participants without any hesitation took part in the campfire and made it a memorable one. The energy, enjoyment and participation took the campfire to midnight; no one wanted to stop, but it was mandatory to switch off the lights.

Day 03: The alarm rang at 05:30 hours and after the morning routine, all gathered in the hall for all-faith prayer. The camp had their breakfast and gathered in the seminar hall for the final session, "Scouting' Mr. Jyothiraj V Balachandran, State Coordinator, Kerala SGF led the session by conducting an open quiz about scouting, refreshing the knowledge gained in the past. This session took back all the participants to their young scout period. A few elder scouts shared valuable memories about the journey of the scouting movement in the State. The closing ceremony was inaugurated by Mr. N K Akbar, Member of Legislative Assembly, Kerala State at 11:00 hours. He shared his experiences with the Scouting movement as a social worker and his views on the importance of the Scouting movement in society. He also pointed out how the knowledge and discipline gained from Scouting helps a person to be a responsible citizen. Mrs. Manavy Jayasurya, State Public Relations Officer was the master of the ceremony. The well-known 'Ottantullal' (Classical art form of Kerala) teacher & performer Mr. Manaloor Gopinath was honoured by Mr. N K Akbar at the event. The winners of various competitions held in the past were honoured in the ceremony.
